Detailed Action

Response to Amendment

Claims 1-36 are pending. This action is in response to the amendment received April 4, 2005.

Response to Arguments

The rejection of claims 1-36 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being unpatentable over Edelman (US 6,064,986) is maintained.

Applicant's arguments filed April 4, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to the arguments concerning the previously rejected claims the following comments are made:

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., processing of the individual's financial information and the individual's risk tolerance characteristics) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

In addition, Applicant alleges that the prior art made of record fails to teach tolerance of declines in asset value or underachievement of the desired goal. The examiner disagrees with applicant's representative since Mini teaches the broker purchasing the property (fig. 13). In other words, Edelman teaches in figure 13 about the distribution of ages for an individual in relation to his/her benefits. This indicates a tolerance of declines in asset value or underachievement of the desired goal.

Furthermore, Applicant alleges that the prior art made of record fails to teach asset allocation requirement to achieve the particular financial goal. The examiner disagrees with applicant's representative since Mini teaches the broker purchasing the property (col. 20, line 36 to col. 21, line 65). In other words, Edelman teaches assets of a retire person is allocated based on the achieved financial goal. In particular, he discloses retirement plans for individuals with an idea of how much the plan will be worth when a person is retired.

Also, re claim 36, Edelman teaches a financial planning engine as claimed in claims 1, 13, and 17. Therefore the rationale applied in the rejection of claim 36 applies herein.

With regards to the claims rejected as unpatentable over Edelman, the examiner would like to point out that the primary reference teaches the claimed limitations and thus provides adequate support for the claimed limitations. Therefore, the examiner maintains that Edelman anticipated the claimed limitations.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
